

Summer Transportation Institute

July 2-27, 2007

The purpose of the Institute : To create awareness and stimulate interest in upper middle and high school students to take full advantage of the opportunities that exist in the transportation industry.

The Institute is offered in partnership with the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA), the Massachusetts Highway Department, local industries and community organizations. It is non-residential and opened to students attending public and private secondary schools across the state.

Curriculum: Water, air, land transportation of people and cargo, intermodalism, safety, and career opportunities.

No. of Scholarships Available:
Only 15, so be hurry!!!

Scholarship benefits:

- Workshops and Handouts
- Facility Usage
- Equipment and Supplies
- Travel (Field Trips)
- Lab Fees
- Speakers
- Lunch and snacks

Student Activities: Hands-on projects, presentations, computer training, academic enhancement activities, field trips, sailing lessons, self-defense workshops, and sports recreation activities. Certificate of Completion will be awarded upon successful completion of the program, the top three participants will receive honors plaques.

Eligibility:

- Those who has interest in Engineering, Science, Transportation, or Technology related career
- Student must be a rising 7th to 12th grader at the end of the 2006-07 school year
- Have a cumulative GPA of 2.0 on a 4.0 scale minimum

Important Dates:

- Application deadline: May 18, 2007
- Award notification: June 1, 2007
- STI program period: July 2-27, 2007 (4 weeks)

Information:
Program website and application forms: www.sti.umb.edu

Contact

Program Director:
Prof. Tomas Materdey
Tomas.materdey@umb.edu
Program Co-coordinator:
Mr. Praveen Nittala
Praveen.Nittala@umb.edu

Institute location: UMass Amherst

Note: This is a non-residential program that meets July 2-27, 2007. Applications from women, minority, and students with disabilities are highly encouraged.

